Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on February 24, 2004 has been entered.
2. The rejection of claims 1, 16-29, 31-32 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schmidt (EP 0,799,886) in view of Davidson (US Patent No. 3,951,821), and further in view of Gladfelter et al. (WO 92/20774) is withdrawn in view of applicants' amendment and arguments therein.

Specification

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claim 32 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The upper limit of the compression pressure in the first phase which is "about 300 kg/cm²" is nowhere supported in the specification. The specification on page 4, line 26 and page 8, line 36 discloses this same pressure but for the second phase not for the first phase. Hence, this is considered as new matter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Double Patenting

7. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed.

Art Unit: 1751

Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

8. Claims 1, 16-19, 25-28 and 32 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-8 of U.S. Patent No. 6,544,943; claim 6 of U.S. Patent No. 6,544,944; claim 8 of U.S. Patent No. 6,551,981; claim 3 of U.S. Patent No. 6,551,982; or claim 8 of U.S. Patent No. 6,589,932; each in view of Davidson (US Patent No. 3,951,821).

Each of US Patent No. 6,544,943; 6,544,944; 6,551,981; 6,551,982 and 6,589,932 teaches a similar tablet having two phases wherein one phase has a mould and another phase is contained within the mould, each phase being compressed at different compression pressures and comprising polymeric disintegrant except for the particle size of the polymeric disintegrant as required in the present claims.

Davidson teaches disintegrating agents for tablets wherein the disintegrating agents include cellulose or cellulose acetate hollow fibers having inside diameters on the order of about 5 to about 1000 microns and a tubule length from about 50 microns to 2 to 3 millimeters, the tubules having outside diameters ranging from about 10 to about 50 microns to about 300 to about 1100 microns and axial length is preferably about 100-1000 microns (see abstract; col. 1, line 60 to col. 2, line 6).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to reasonably expect the polymeric disintegrants of each of the above mentioned patents to have a particle size within those recited because it is shown by Davidson that polymeric disintegrating agents for tablets have sizes which overlap those recited.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 20-24 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: None of the prior art of record teaches, discloses or suggests a detergent tablet having two or more phases having different compression pressures, as recited in the claims, and which comprises the recited water-soluble hydrated salt.
